

1. Arcul de Triumf Visit

Triumphal Arch · Piața Arcul de Triumf

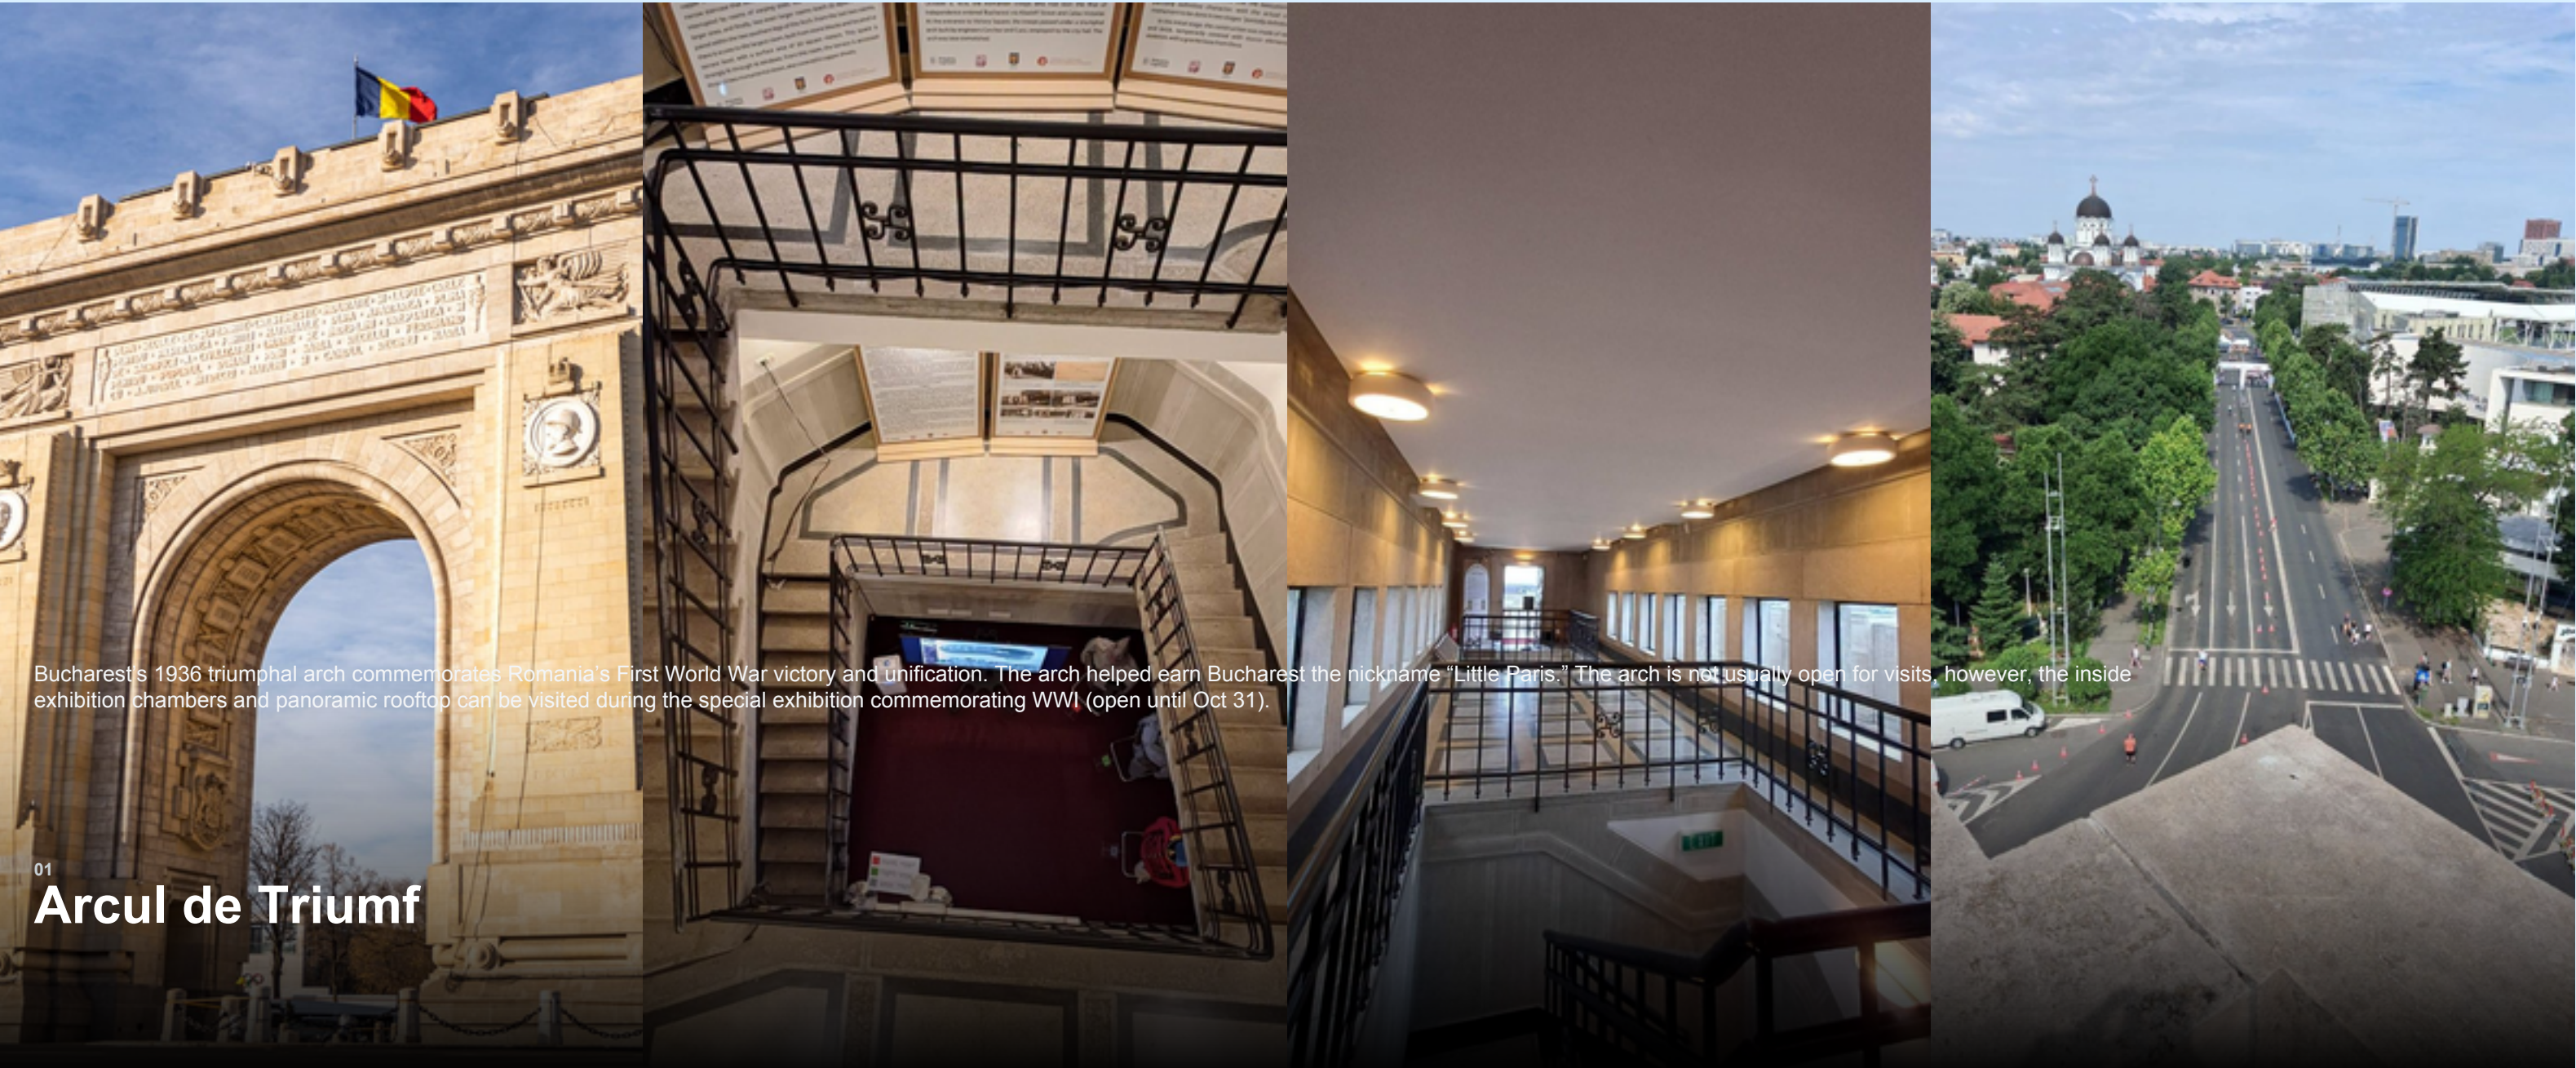

OPENING HOURS

Fri 10:00–18:00 · last entry 17:30

Sat 11:00–19:00 · last entry 18:30

Sun 11:00–19:00 · last entry 18:30

Admission: 15 RON (3 EUR)

Bucharest's 1936 triumphal arch commemorates Romania's First World War victory and unification. The arch helped earn Bucharest the nickname "Little Paris." The arch is not usually open for visits, however, the inside exhibition chambers and panoramic rooftop can be visited during the special exhibition commemorating WWI (open until Oct 31).

01
Arcul de Triumf

2. Parliament Building Gallery (MNAC)

National Museum of Contemporary Art · Palace of Parliament

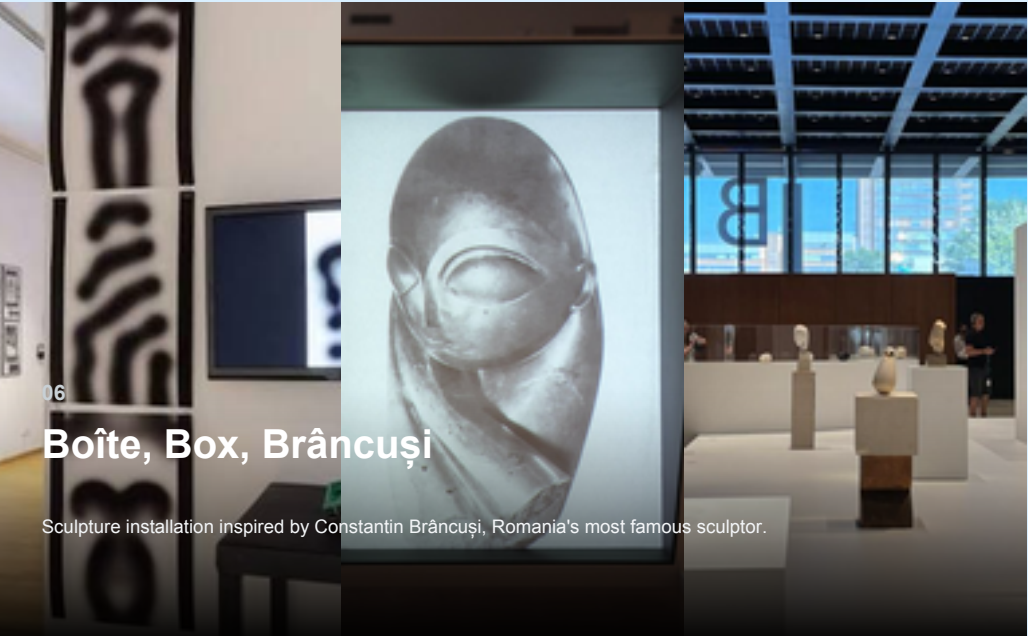

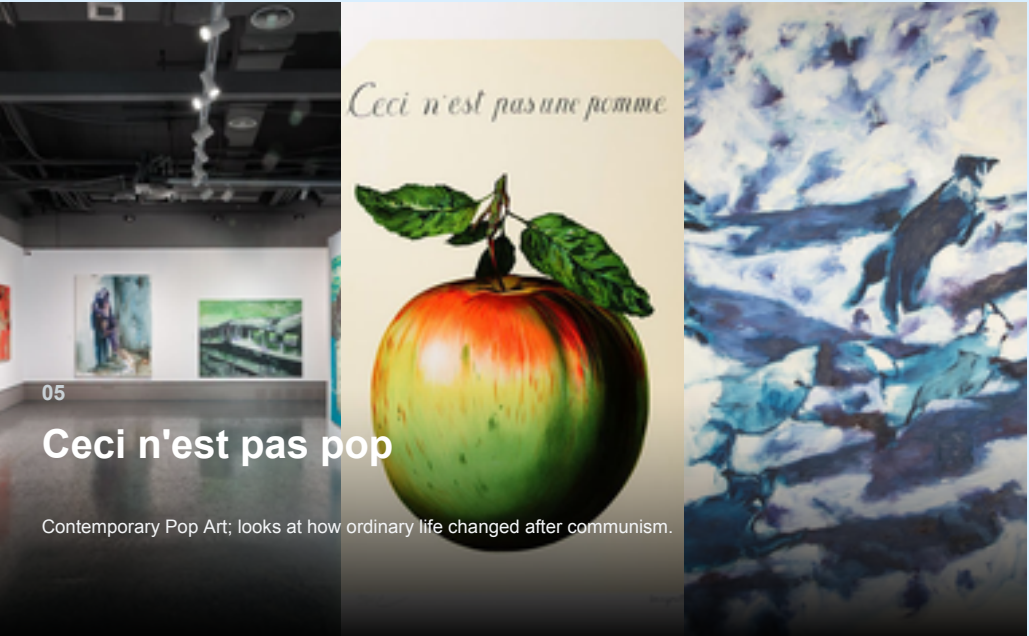

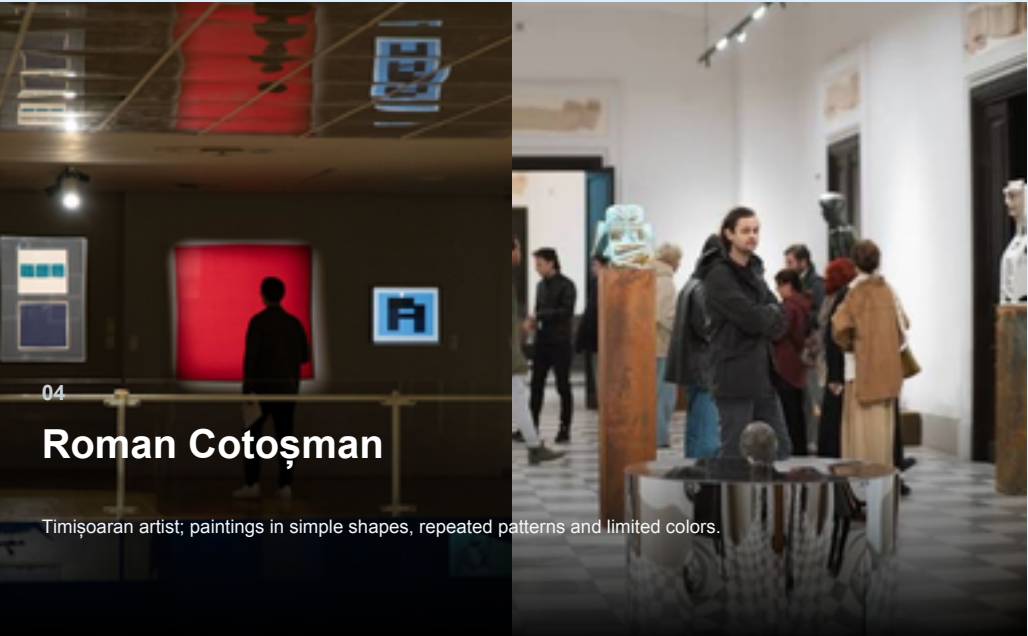

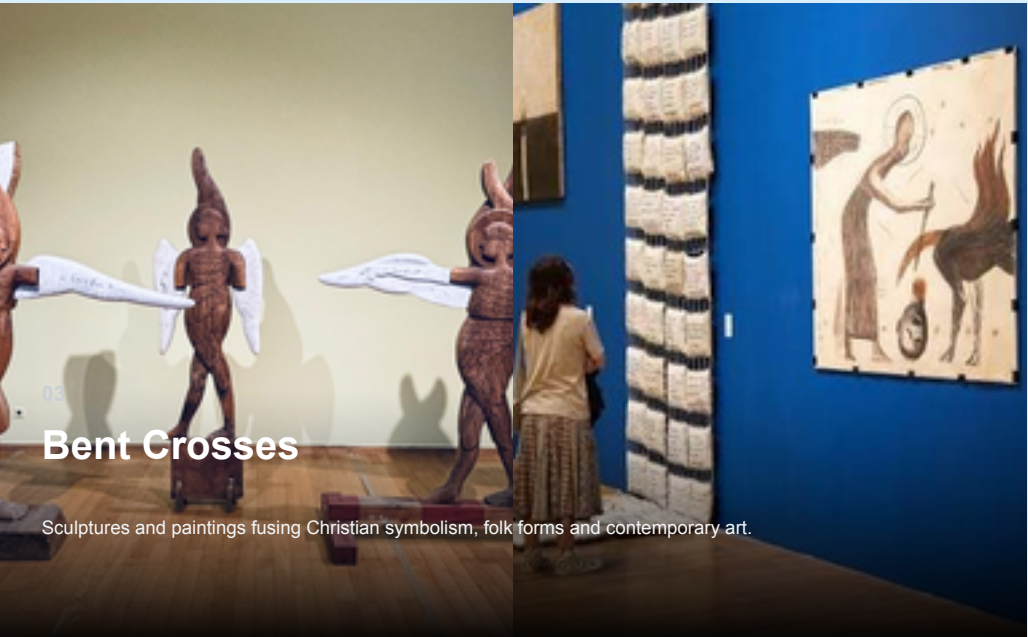

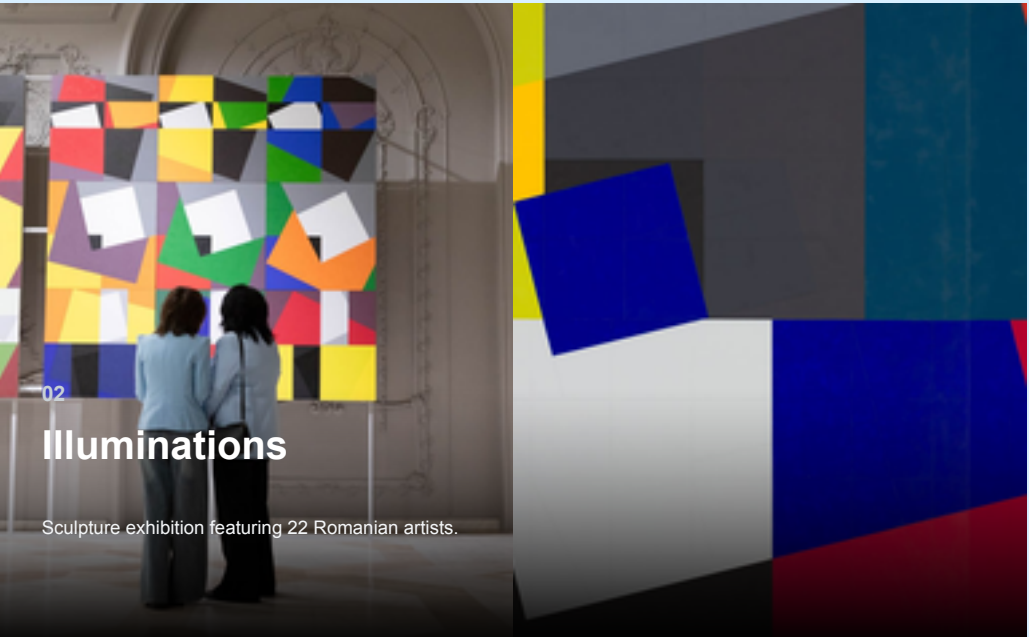

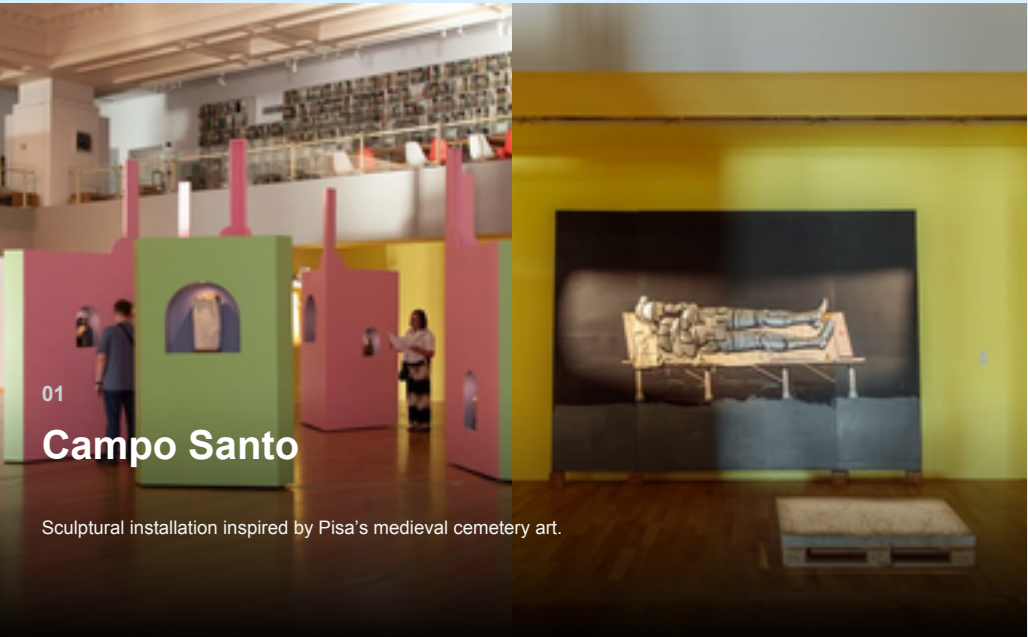

OPENING HOURS

Fri 11:00–18:30 · last entry 18:00

Sat 11:00–18:30 · last entry 18:00

Sun 11:00–18:30 · last entry 18:00

Admission: 36 RON (7 EUR)

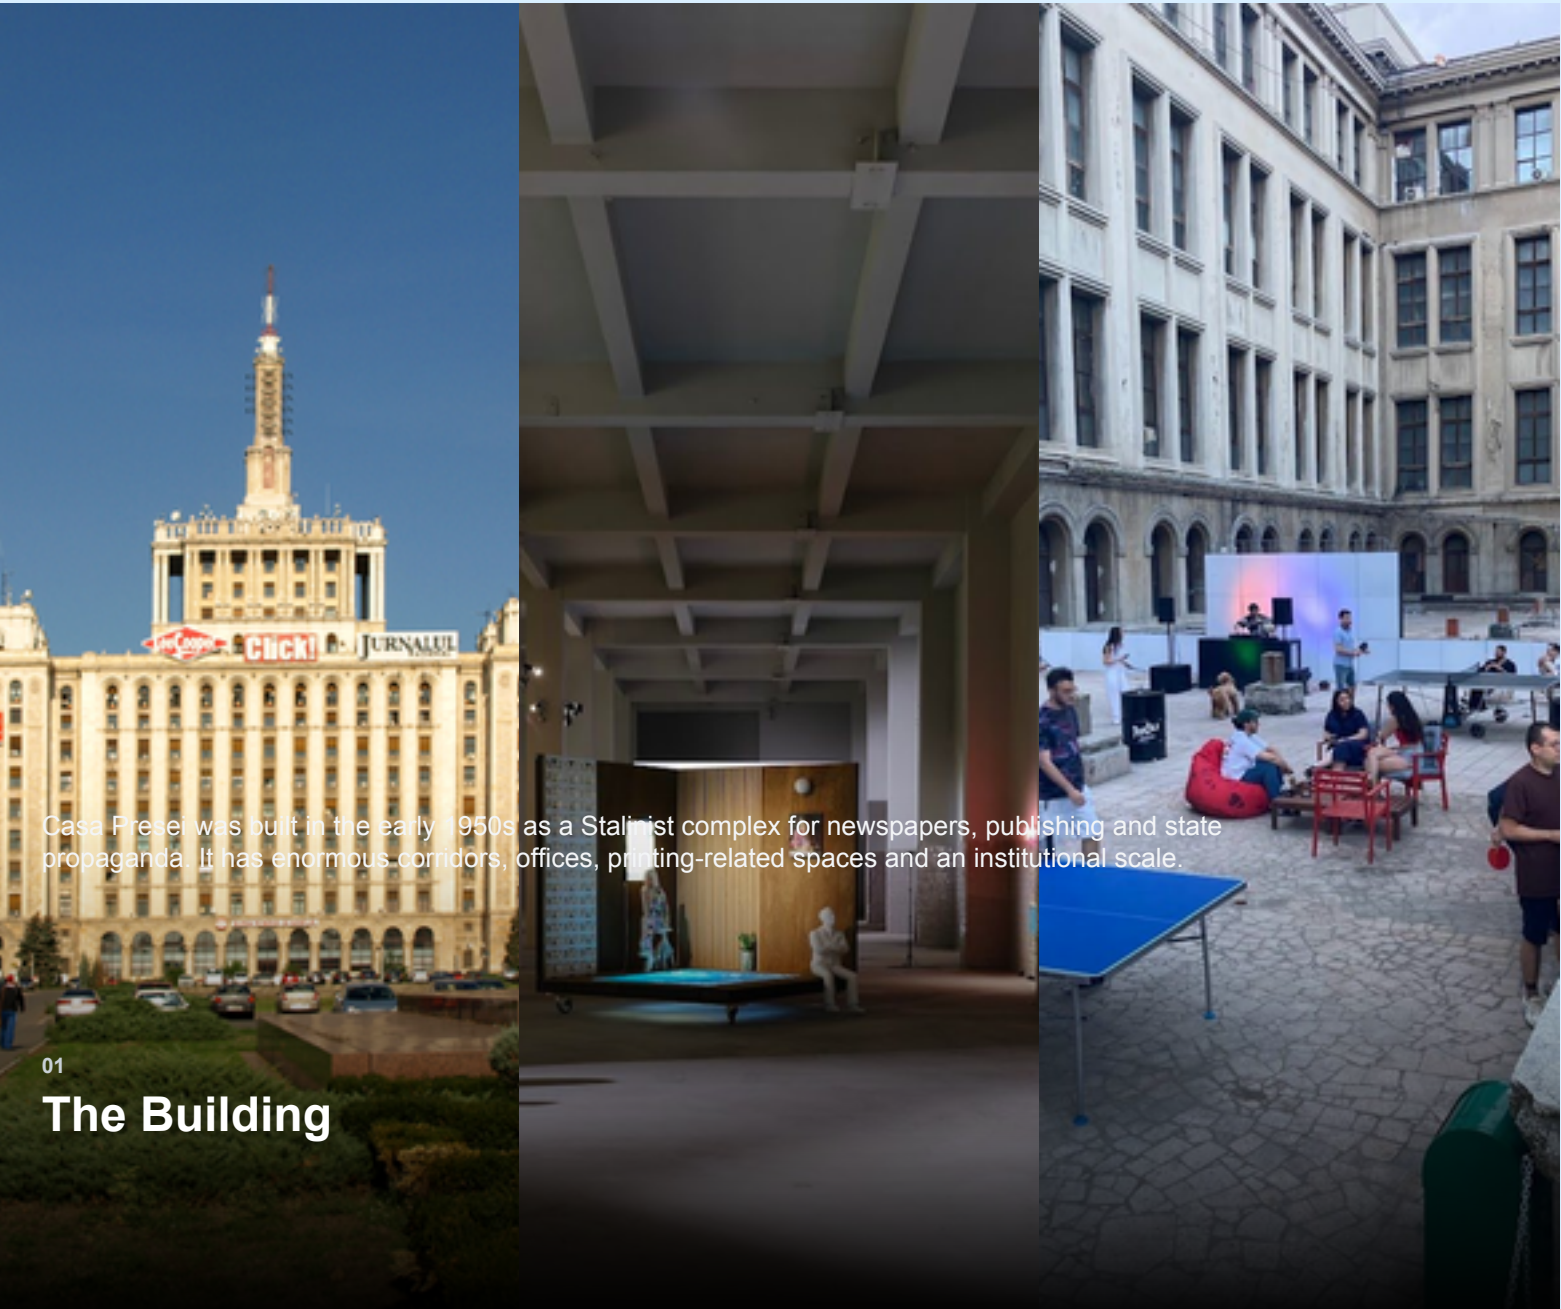

3. House of the Free Press

SCÂNTEIA+ gallery inside Casa Presei Libere ("House of the Free Press"), the huge former communist press headquarters · Piața Presei Libere

OPENING HOURS

Fri 14:00–18:00
Sat 14:00–20:00 · tour 18:00
Sun Closed

Casa Presei was built in the early 1950s as a Stalinist complex for newspapers, publishing and state propaganda. It has enormous corridors, offices, printing-related spaces and an institutional scale.

01
The Building

35 years of Romanian photography through 39 works that reflect a wide range of photographic practices.

02
Explaining Photography in 39 Works

Last Day: Saturday, September 5th

4. Strada Benjamin Franklin 10

Historic villa under renovation; open to visitors on special occasions

OPENING HOURS

Fri 19:00 - 22:00

Sat 19:00 - 22:00

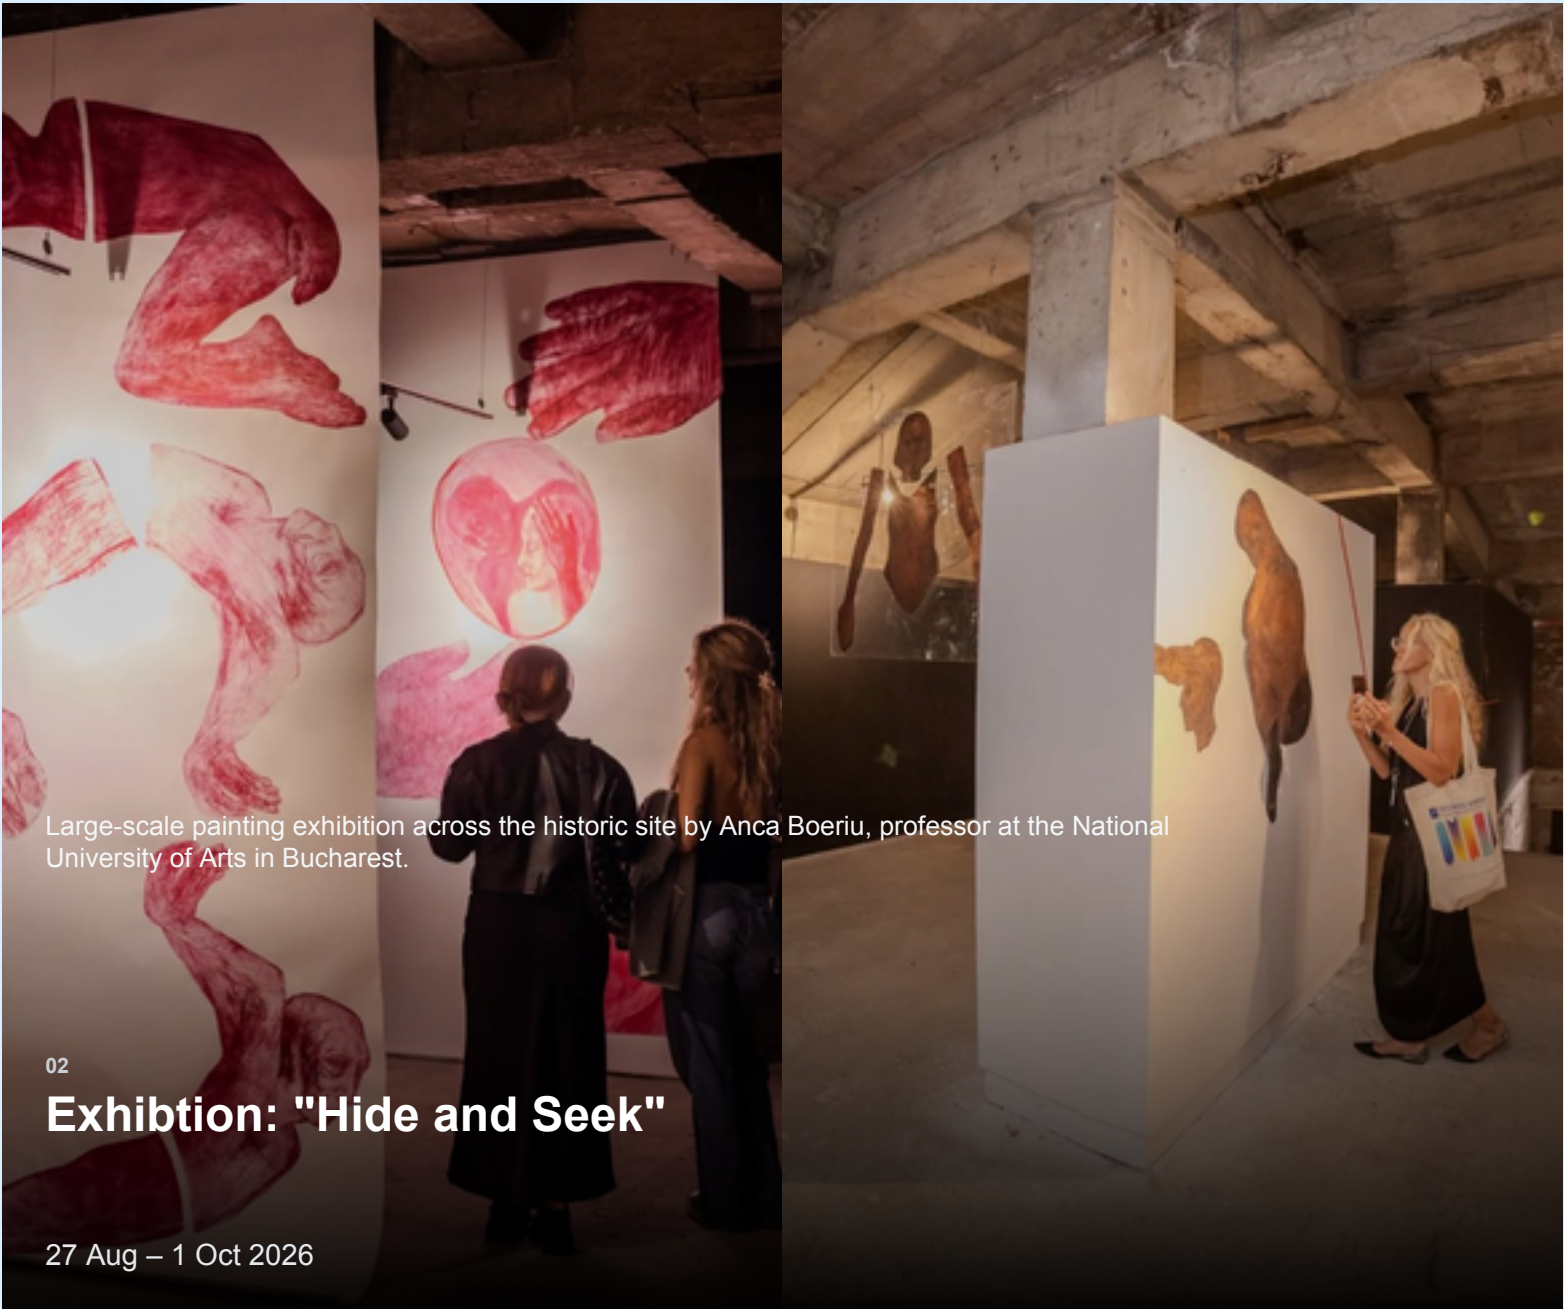

Sun 19:00 - 22:00

Admission: Free

Italian villa built in the 1870s for the Boerescu family; converted to a social club and iconic restaurant CINA in the 1920s; today, the building is visibly mid-renovation, with walls stripped back to concrete.

01
The Building: "CINA"

Large-scale painting exhibition across the historic site by Anca Boeriu, professor at the National University of Arts in Bucharest.

02
Exhibition: "Hide and Seek"

27 Aug – 1 Oct 2026

5. Cesianu Racoviță Palace

Iconic 19th-century palace; now hosts the Artmark auction house and lot viewings · Strada C.A. Rosetti 5

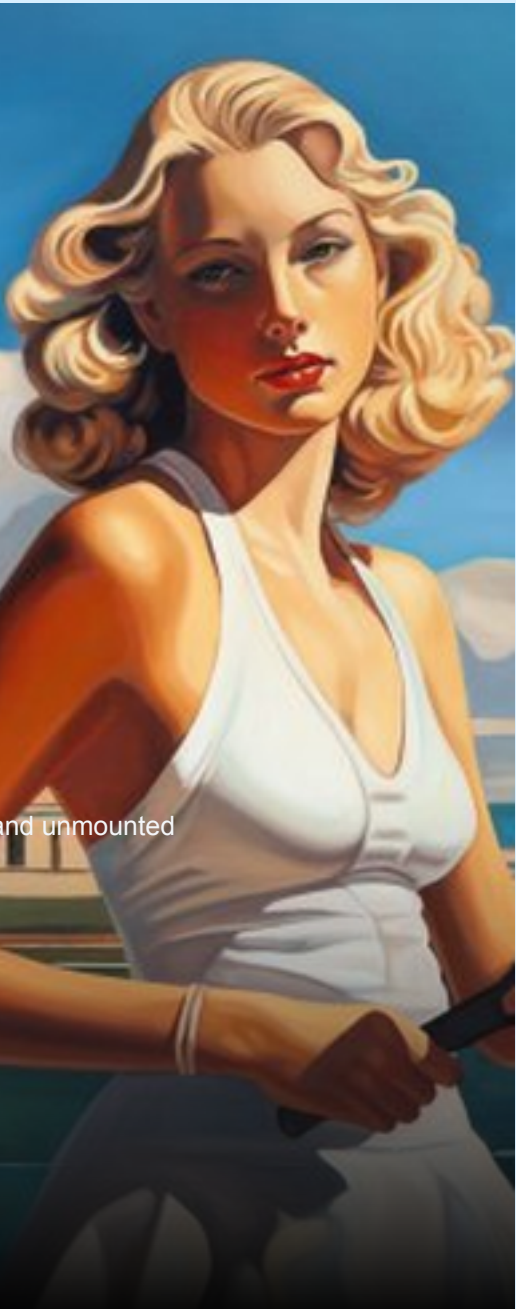

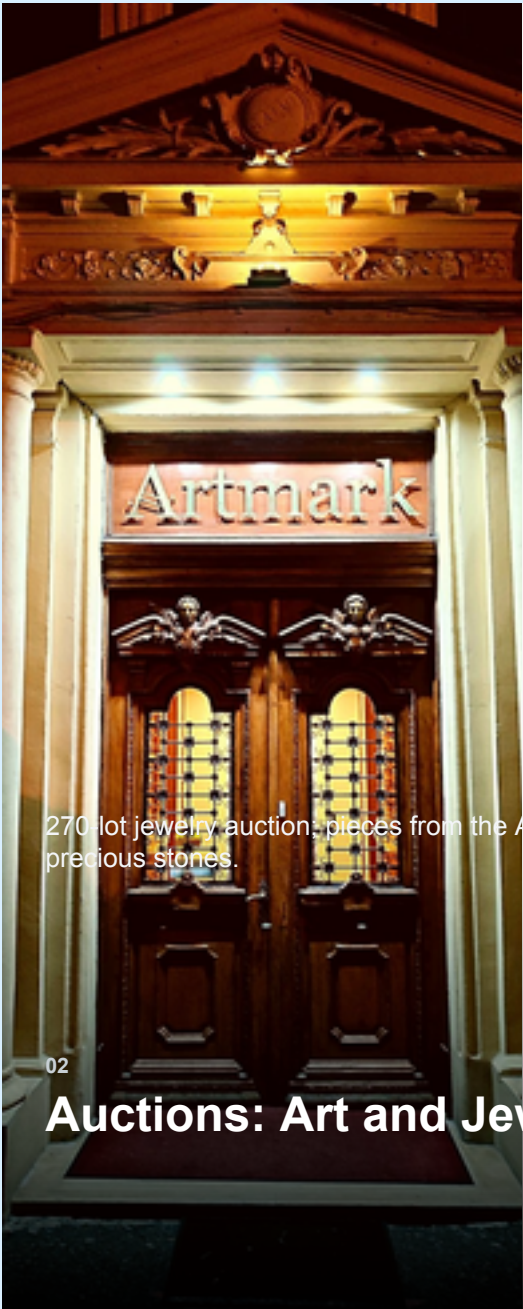

OPENING HOURS

Fri 10:00–20:00

Sat 10:00–20:00

Sun 10:00–20:00

Admission: Free

6. Recent Art Museum

MARe: a five-floor museum displaying contemporary Romanian art · Bulevardul Primăverii 15

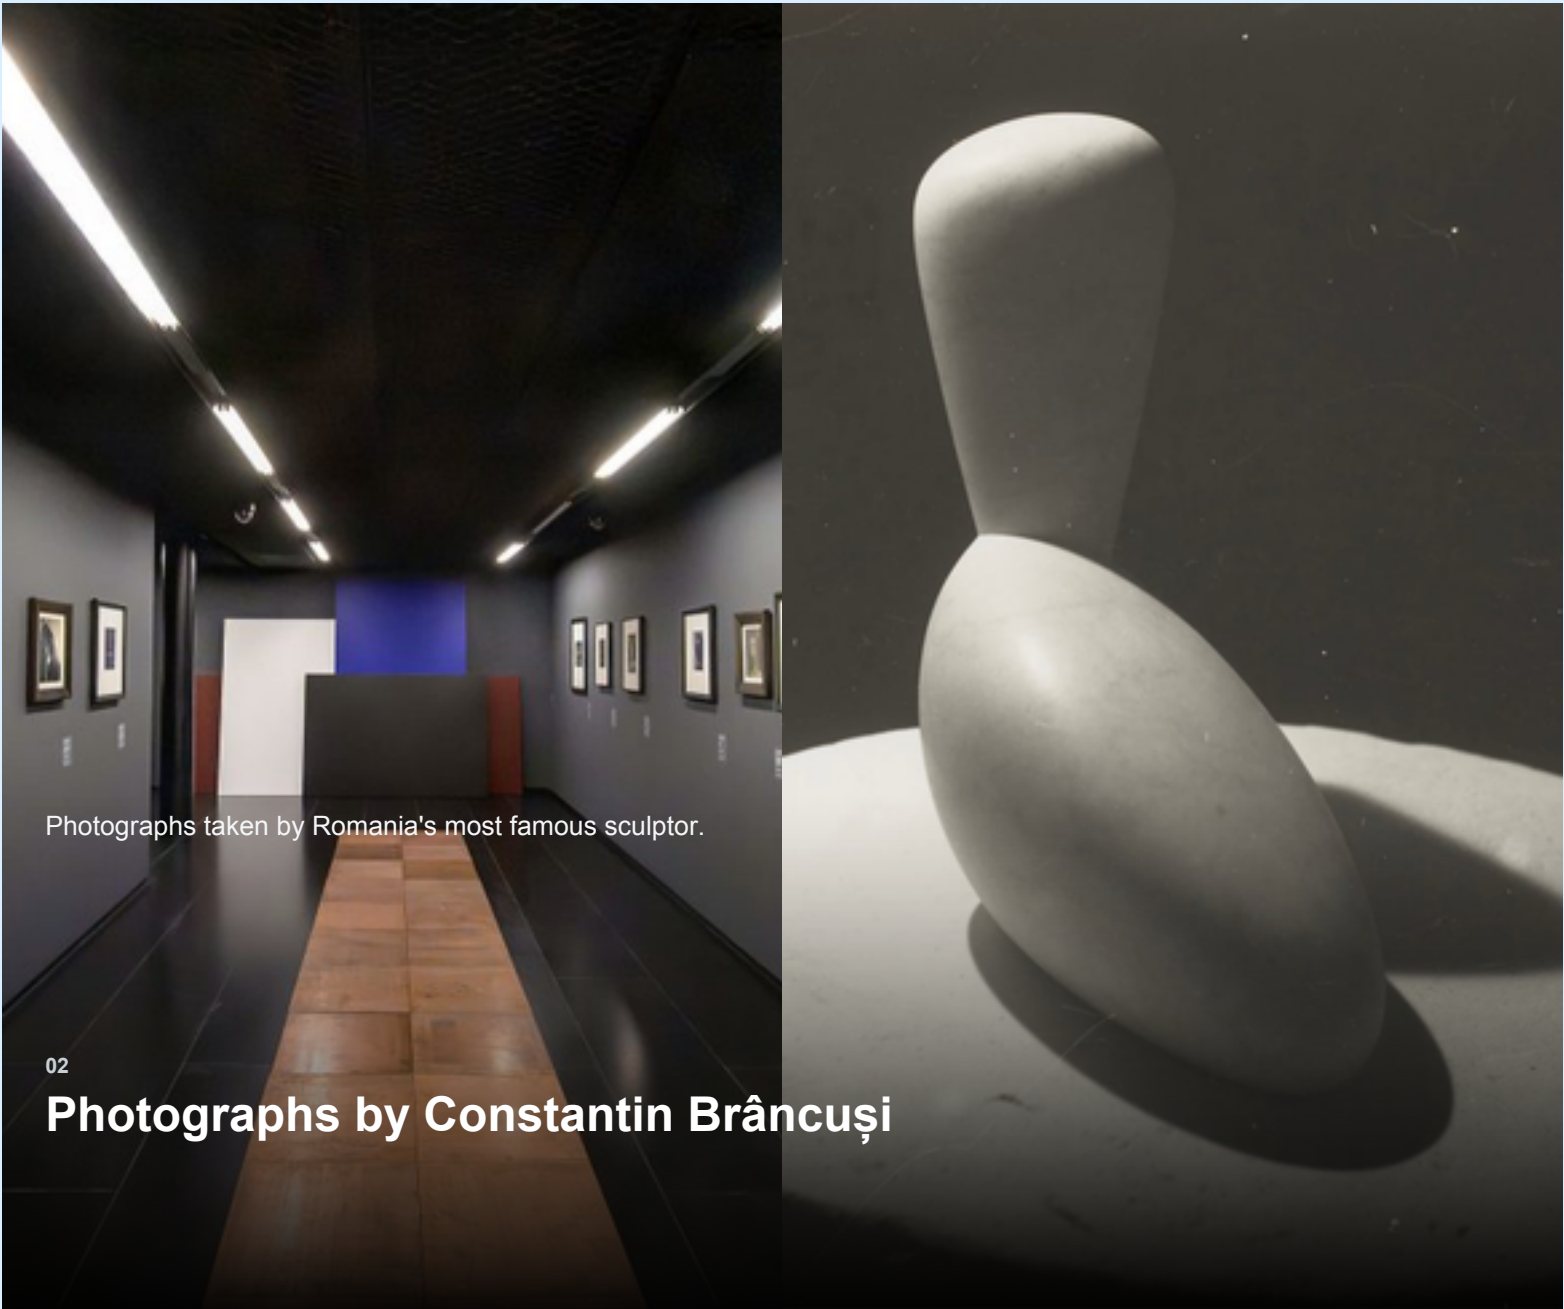

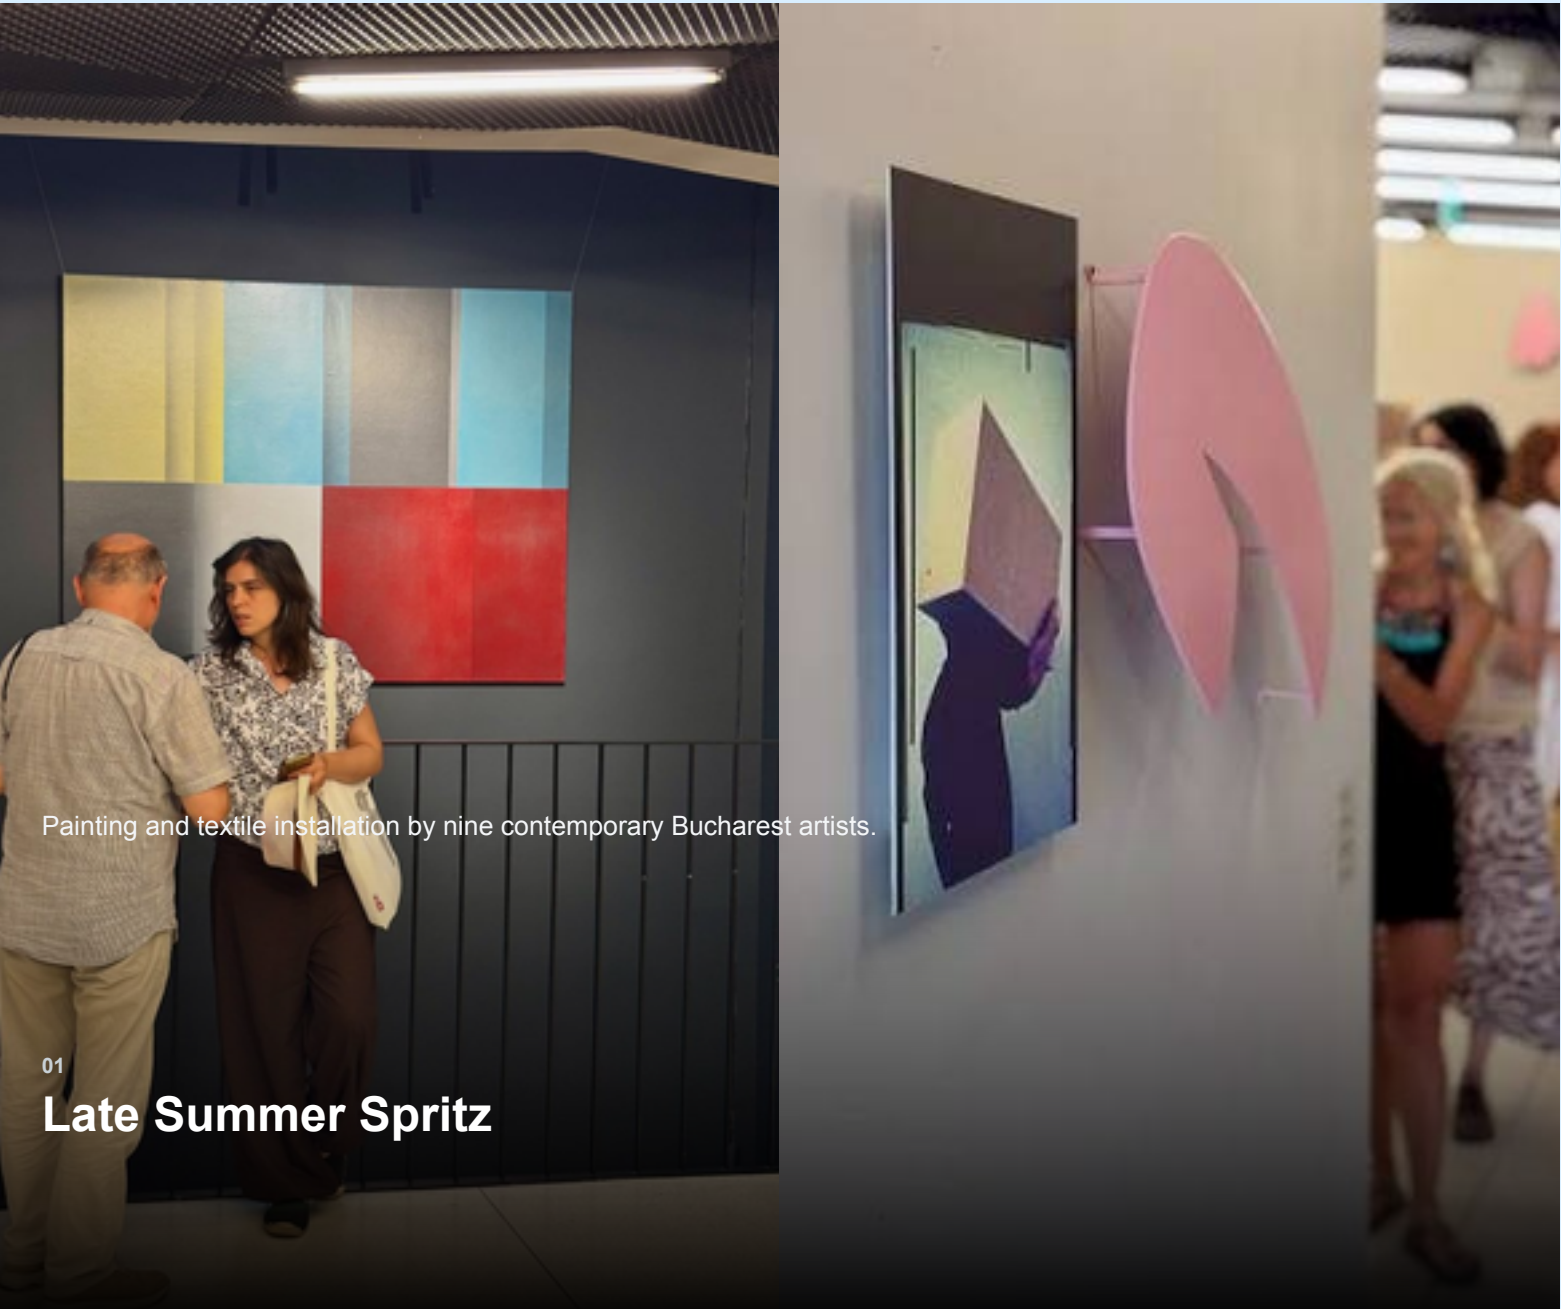

OPENING HOURS

Fri 11:00–19:00

Sat 11:00–19:00

Sun 11:00–19:00

Admission: 30 RON (6 EUR)

7. Eva Foundation

Art foundation in the heart of Bucharest in a 1930s townhouse · Strada I.C. Visarion 17 · appointment required

OPENING HOURS

By hourly appointment
Fri 11:00–18:00
Sat 11:00–18:00
Sun Closed

Admission: Free

8. National Museum of Art of Romania

Housed in the Royal Palace of Bucharest · Calea Victoriei 49–53

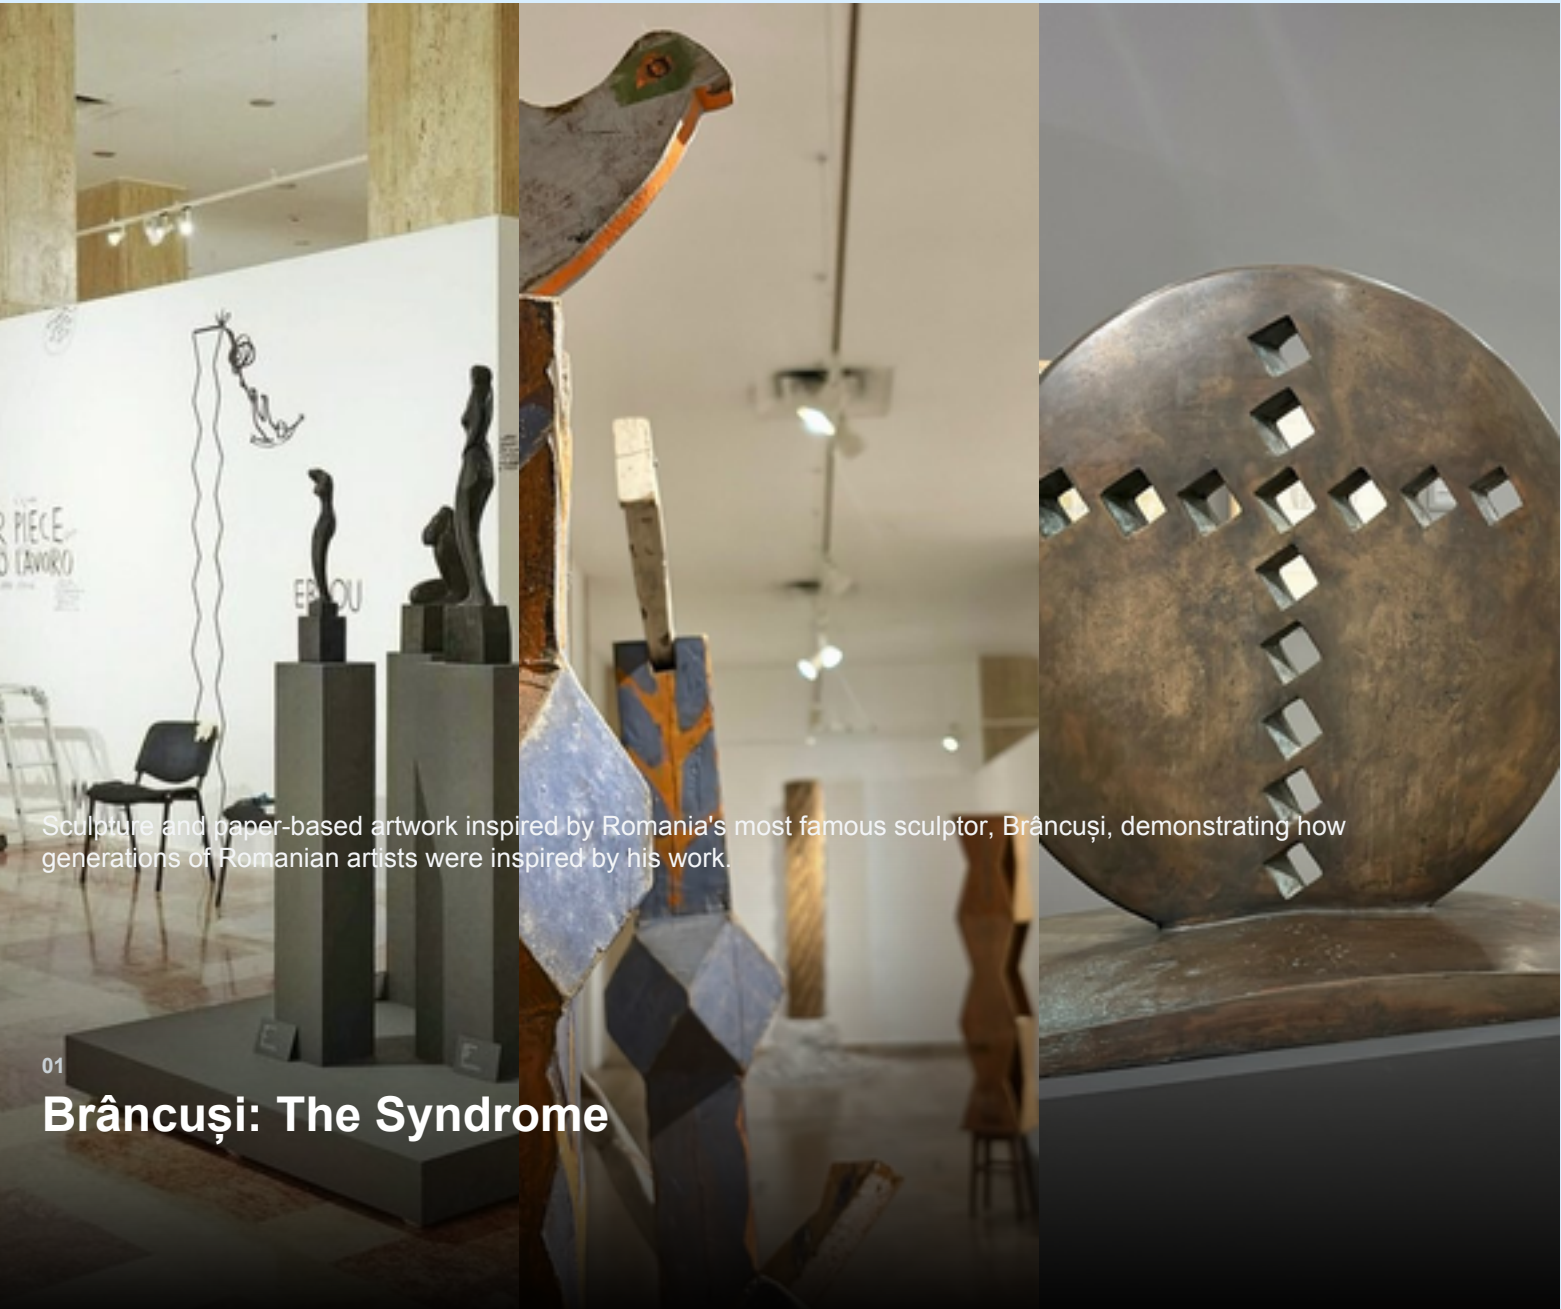

OPENING HOURS

Fri 10:00–18:00 · last entry 17:00

Sat 11:00–19:00 · last entry 18:00

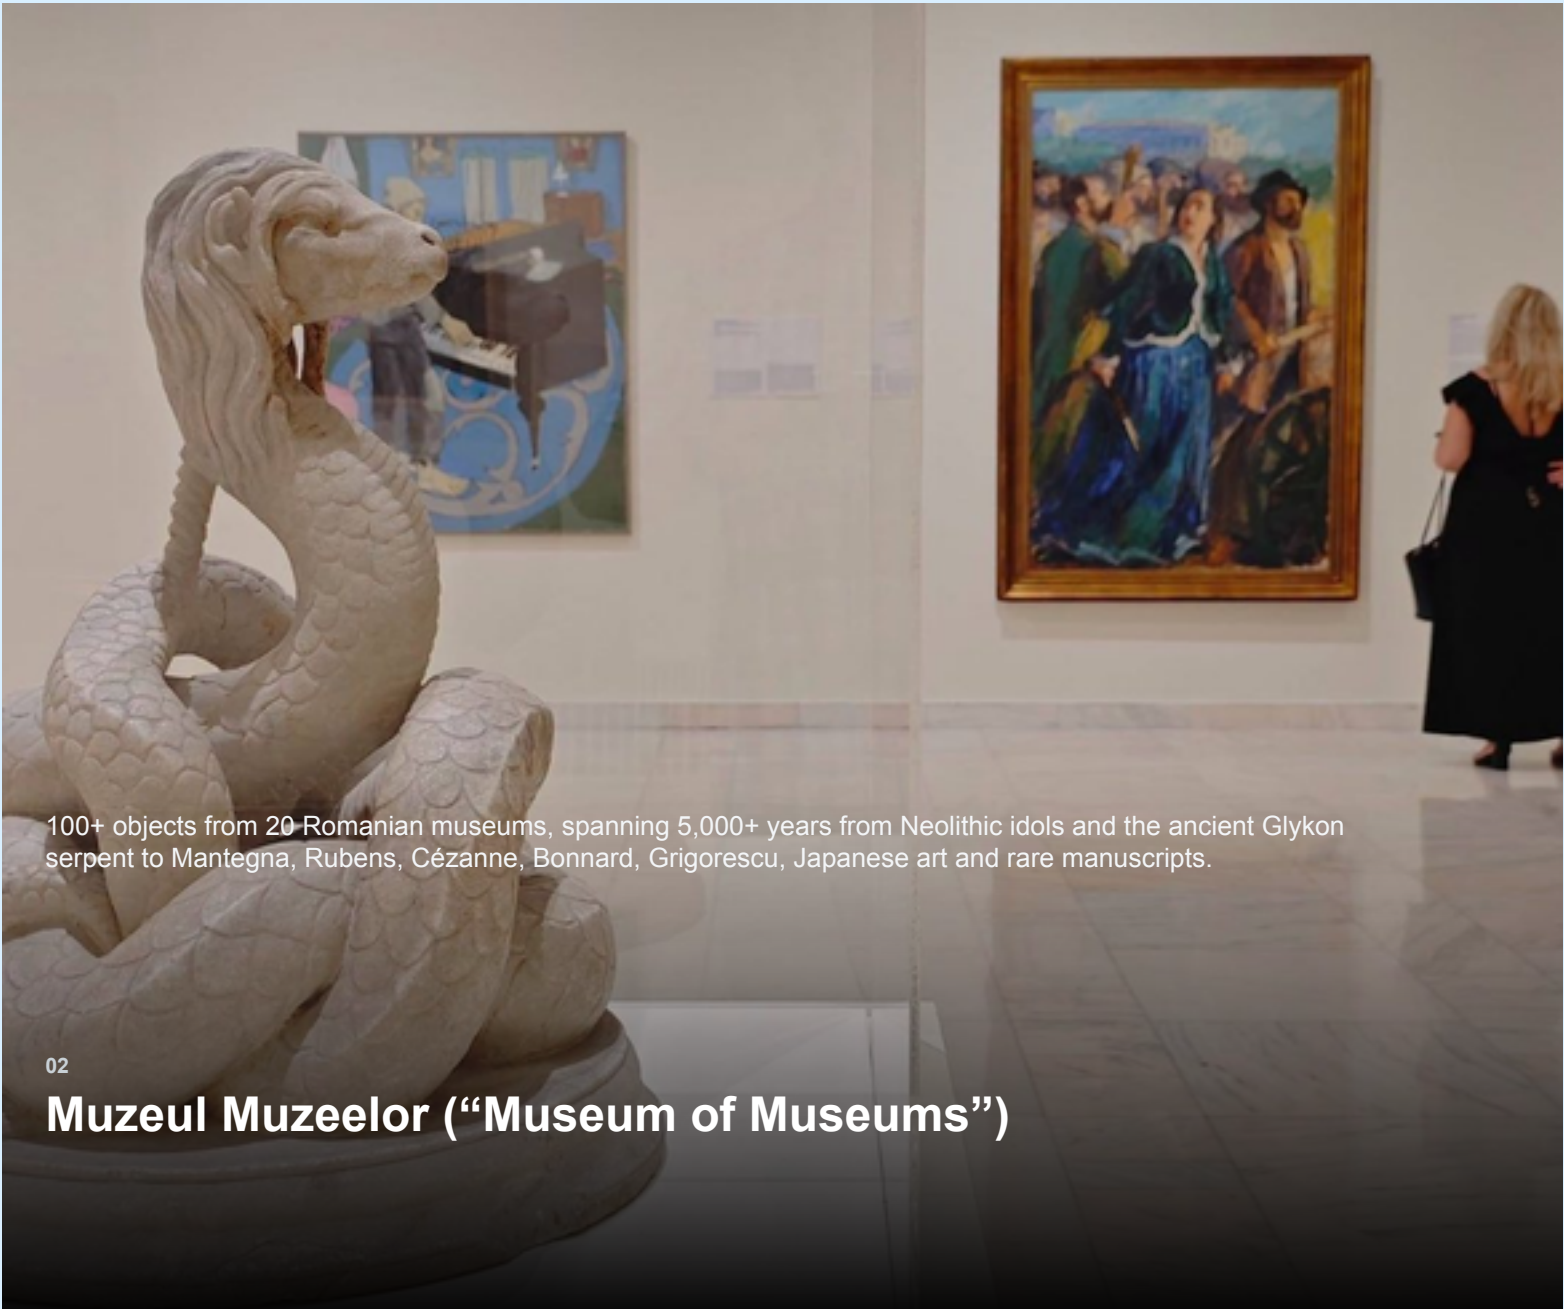

Sun 11:00–19:00 · last entry 18:00

Admission: 32 RON (6 EUR)

Sculpture and paper-based artwork inspired by Romania's most famous sculptor, Brâncuși, demonstrating how generations of Romanian artists were inspired by his work.

01
Brâncuși: The Syndrome

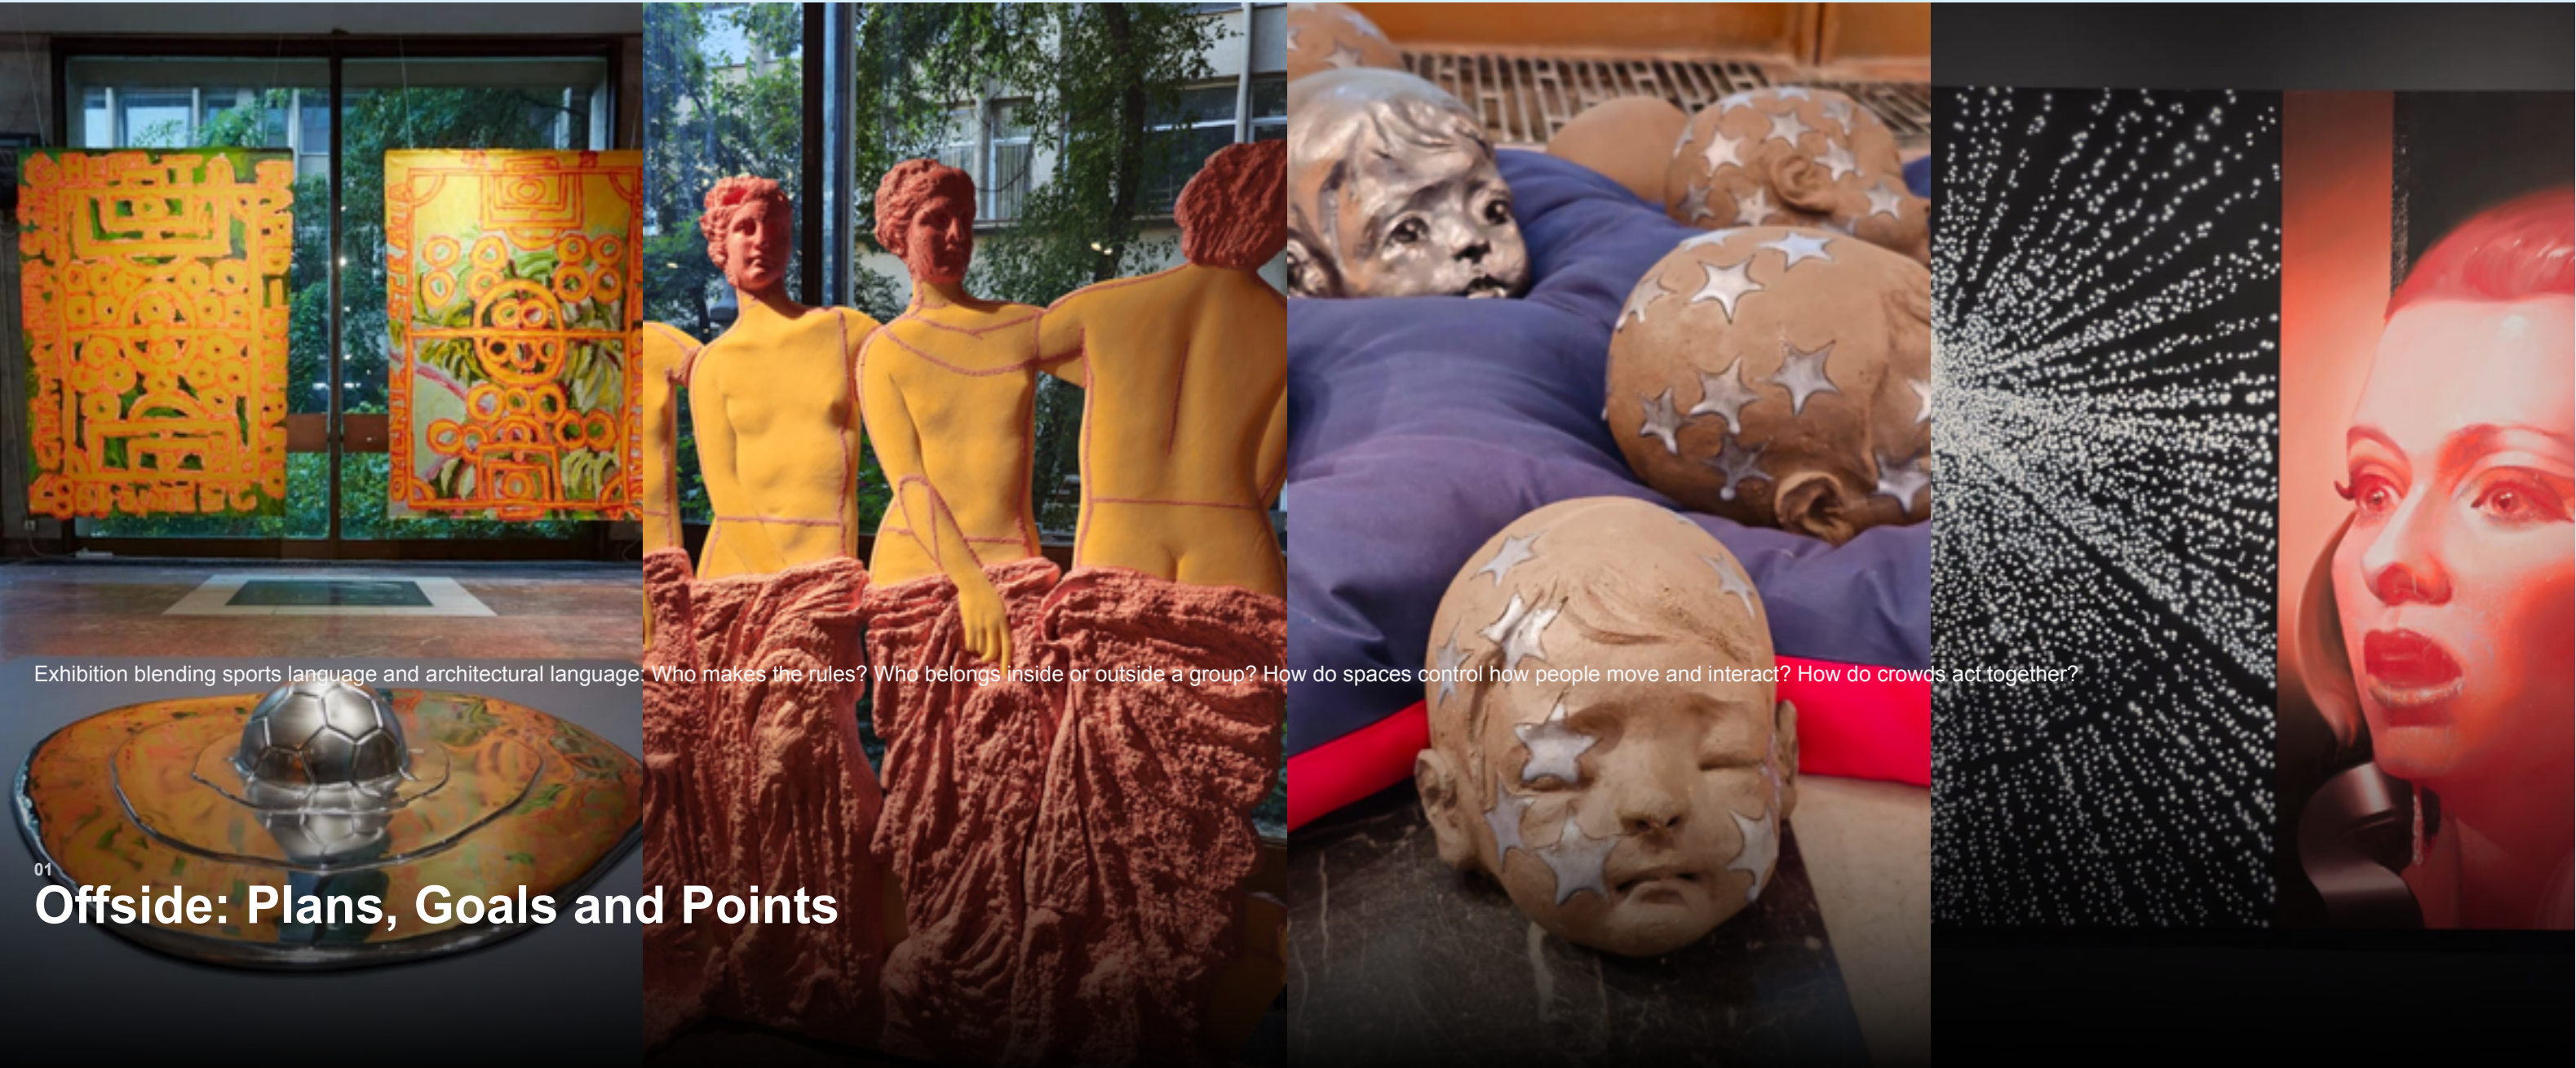

100+ objects from 20 Romanian museums, spanning 5,000+ years from Neolithic idols and the ancient Glykon serpent to Mantegna, Rubens, Cézanne, Bonnard, Grigorescu, Japanese art and rare manuscripts.

02
Muzeul Muzeelor (“Museum of Museums”)

9. Mincu Gallery "Spațiul de Artă Contemporană"

"Ion Mincu" University of Architecture · Strada Academiei 18–20

Exhibition blending sports language and architectural language: Who makes the rules? Who belongs inside or outside a group? How do spaces control how people move and interact? How do crowds act together?

01
Offside: Plans, Goals and Points